

Job Posting ReStore Warehouse Coordinator

Habitat for Humanity is recruiting for a high energy, multi-tasking Restore Warehouse Coordinator for our Castlegar ReStore. This is salaried, full-time, permanent position with an accompanying extended benefits package.

About Habitat for Humanity Southeast British Columbia (Habitat SEBC):

Habitat for Humanity SEBC is a Canadian registered charity and not-for-profit housing organization that supports local families through affordable homeownership. Habitat for Humanity's home ownership model empowers families to invest in homeownership, building strength, stability and self-reliance for families and for the community. Our Habitat ReStores are home and building supply stores that accept and resell quality new and used building materials, furniture, appliances and home décor. The Castlegar ReStore generates funds to support Habitat for Humanity homebuilding projects and to support our work with Habitat Partner Families in the West Kootenay, Boundary and East Kootenay regions. Your work at the Habitat ReStore directly supports affordable housing in your community.

About Castlegar:

Castlegar is located in the heart of the West Kootenay region and is an outdoor enthusiast's dream. Whether you love biking, hiking, skiing, fishing, lakes or rivers, Castlegar has world class recreational activities just out your door. Warmer months find residents flocking to hikes and mountain-biking in the Monashee, Selkirk, and Valhalla Mountains, or relaxing on the beaches of Kootenay, Arrow and Slokan Lakes. In the winter you are within 45 minutes of both Red Mountain (Rossland) and Whitewater (Nelson) ski resorts. Many ongoing seasonal events will keep you entertained and plugged into the community. If you're looking to escape the faster pace of the big city without losing the benefit of amenities and recreation, Castlegar may be your new home.
